

Health Communications Specialist

Job Number: 08062009

Organization: Centers for Disease Control and Prevention

Posted: 8/6/2009

Type: Full-Time

Classification: Community Health

Industry: Federal Government

Number of Openings: 1

Location: Atlanta, GA

Compensation: $65,000 - $75,000/yr

Position Description: Duties for this contract position include:

- Plan, organize, develop, manage, administer, and disseminate communication projects
- Research and write a variety of materials for public awareness campaigns, for specific audiences who have the need for targeted information about injury prevention and control, for media, for publication in popular literature, and for dissemination to a wide variety of constituencies to further the goal of preventing injuries and their adverse health effects.
- Build and maintain effective working relationships with constituent organizations such as federal, states, and local health agencies; private organizations; professional and volunteer agencies; and injury prevention and control professionals to foster collaboration in efforts to inform the public about national injury prevention and control efforts.
- Creates and executes communication strategies.
- Develops communication materials

Qualifications:

- Extensive knowledge in the public health field
- Mastery of principles, methods, practices, and techniques to communication that enable the contractor to execute health communication projects for the National Center for Injury Prevention and Control (NCIPC) and the Division of Injury Response (DIR).
- Exceptional presentation skills
- Strong written communication skills

Organization Description: The mission of the National Center for Injury Prevention and Control is to prevent injuries and violence, and reduce their consequences.

Closing Date: 9/4/2009

Desired Starting Date: 9/1/2009

Contact Name:

Nicole Strike, Program Manager

Contact Location:

Intaset Technologies Corporation

315 Dawson Ave., Suite A

Oakland, MD 21550

410-756-3335 (phone)

410-756-3771 (fax)

Email: healthcom@intaset.com

Web Address: <http://www.intaset.com>

How to Apply: Please send resume, cover letter, and any references to healthcom@intaset.com