

JOB OPPORTUNITY

Research Assistant

Washington University School of Medicine, Division of Infectious Diseases, is looking for a motivated Research Assistant to work on a research project to study the relationship between medication orders and patient falls at Barnes-Jewish Hospital.

Responsibilities include:

- Data collection via chart review
- Data entry
- Literature searches and updating literature databases

Requirements: Bachelor's degree in a health/science discipline preferred. Work experience in a research setting, excellent written and verbal communication skills, good computer skills, knowledge of statistical software a plus

Time commitment:

- ~20 hours/week
- Hourly wage
- Flexible hours

If interested, email CV and cover letter to:

Missy Krauss, M.P.H.

314-454-8570

314-454-8279

mkrauss@im.wustl.edu